

Art I, Arts and Humanities, Advanced Art

Every day that we are out for a NTI snow day you will be required to do the following assignments.

Each day we are out of school the student will draw a household item or something from outside. The student will shade each drawing using hatching, cross hatching, stippling, blending or any combination of the methods. Advanced Art students are expected to show more detail in the drawings.